

To Analyze Thinking We Must Learn to Identify and Question its Elemental Structures

Be aware: When we understand the structures of thought, we ask important questions implied by these structures.